Q&A's

What is the Pennsylvania PT-PAC?

The Pennsylvania Physical Therapy Political Action Committee (PA PT-PAC) is a fundraising organization that accesses and influences legislators that serve the physical therapy community's interests and issues at the state level.

What does the Pennsylvania PT-PAC do?

The PT-PAC supports state candidates who advocate for the profession using personal contributions, thereby allowing the voice of the physical therapy community to be heard in government. The PA PT-PAC does not contribute to federal candidates.

Who can contribute to the Pennsylvania PT-PAC?

The PAC can only accept personal donations from individuals. Contributions from businesses, corporations, or organizations cannot be received. Donations are not tax deductible.

How can I contribute to the Pennsylvania PT-PAC?

Donations can be made in the form of cash, check, or credit card. Cash donations of amounts greater than $100 cannot be accepted. Personal checks should be made payable to PA PT PAC. Credit card donations via Paypal can be submitted using the link on the PPTA homepage www.ppta.org.
